

Friday, November 16, 2007

Outstanding

Orlando Business Journal

The Central Florida office of Sikon Construction Corp. is building Tapestry Park in Jacksonville.

The two-story, 40,000-square-foot project is a neo-traditional, mixed-use European village-style development in Jacksonville's Southside area. The developer is Joyce Development Group of Jacksonville.

The ground floor will have 24,000 square feet of retail space, and the second floor will have 16,000 square feet of office space. The project is designed by Charlan Brock & Associates of Maitland and is scheduled for completion in the spring.

Opening

Steven Douglas Associates opened a Central Florida office in Oviedo. Catherine Coates was named managing director of the office. The company provides professional services in the finance, information technology, executive management and human resources fields, and it is based in Weston.

Moving

Wragg & Casas Public Relations moved its Orlando office to larger quarters at The Plaza in downtown Orlando. Heather Mikes was promoted to vice president of regional operations. The firm is based in Miami.

Allgen Financial Services Inc. moved its main office from the Conway area to the Capital Plaza Tower II on East Pine Street in downtown Orlando.

Yard Media, a multimedia and advertising company, moved to larger offices in Winter Park.

Services

Construction services firm W.G. Yates & Sons Construction Co. awarded a contract to D&A Building Services Inc. of Longwood for construction cleanup services at Palma Bella, a 14-story, 277,700-square-foot condo tower in Daytona Beach Shores.

Advertising

Centro US, the American division of Centro Properties Group, chose Anson-Stoner to develop a branding campaign for six regional shopping centers nationwide. Centro is based in Australia and is a retail investment organization that owns shopping centers in Australia, New Zealand and the United States. Anson-Stoner is based in Winter Park.

Masterpiece Interiors retained Vergason Sojourner & McWaters as its advertising, marketing and public relations agency. Masterpiece Interiors specializes in model merchandising, custom residential and residential resort design. Both firms are based in Winter Park.

Contractors

Brasfield & Gorrie LLC awarded a contract worth nearly $1 million to Shaw Mechanical Services LLC for heating, ventilation and air-conditioning systems at Colonial Center 400 at TownPark in Lake Mary. The five-story, 175,674-square-foot building is scheduled to be finished in the spring. Colonial Properties Trust of Lake Mary is the developer, and mechanical contracting is provided by AHA Consulting Engineers of Roswell, Ga.

Tri-City Electrical Contractors Inc. is doing nearly $1 million worth of work at the 186-unit Esplanade Condominiums in Orlando, under its contract with LandSouth Construction. The project is scheduled for completion in March.